Naturally Wolgast could not have been at his beet, but he didn't ahow any burging deerre to "get" Ritchie again and even scores with him.

It looks, on paper, as if Ritchie's chance to pluck the title should be ag good as anyone's. And he'd make a good, clever, classy champion.

ACK DOUGHERTY thinks his boy Charlie Goldman is emitted in content of the content of the course, and so the payer in the league and took of the court of the other player in the league and took as a good, clever, classy champion.

ACK DOUGHERTY thinks his boy Charlie Goldman is entitled to more credit. He takes his pen in hand to the following effect: "Goldman is one of the grandest little fellows and a credit to the ring. When he meets Coulon again he will win decisively. He beat Knockout Brown, Joe Coster, Eddle Smith and a lot of lightweights and slopped Willie Jones in two rounds and made a hit in Baltimore by knocking out George Cheney. He broke his left hand and fought Kid Williams, and knocked him through the ropes in third and knocked him down in the sixth and can beat Williams now. I think the little Frenchman, Ledoux, can knock out Williams with proper handling. Goldman will give him a fight."

OSTON is loaded with champion-Boston is loaded with a ships this year. Harvard beat Yale in rowing, track meet and football championship, and took the orome-country championship away from Cornell. And the Red Sox won the baseball championship. They have other things beside tea parties > Boston way.

After the usual preliminary drill the men were sent through a fast and snappy signal practice, and wound up a strenuous day by a hard thirty-minute scrimmage, during which the regulars scored twice. Keyes, Benedict, Altman and Milburn were the backs used on the regulars. Prichard drove the team from quarter.

Keyes added another a moment later when, aided by beautiful interference, he brought Doe's punt back 45 yards and started the second Army march that finally resulted in his being shoved over for the second touchdown. Neither of the goals was attempted. Markoc's leg still keeps him in the hospital, but he will return to the squad

BROWN AND BROCK FIGHT HARD DRAW

Western Fighter Is Hissed Round After Round for His Rough Work.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 27. - Knockout Brown and Phil Brock fought twelve rounds of terrific battling before a large crowd at the Victor A. C. The general opinion is that the bout should be called a draw. Brock's rough work spotled the good fighting he did, and brought round after round of hisses. He repeatedly jabbed with his elbow, butted with his head and struck Brown after the gong sounded. These tactics made him many enemies. He landed some telling wallops.
